FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

August is arriving shortly and we all know that means our first Crab Feed is on August 19th. I expect a very large crowd as we will serve both fresh dungeness crab and baked chicken halves until we are sold out, so plan on arriving early.

And, we are going to have a major change in our kitchen with the addition of Chef Mike Brooks. Please see the special announcement in this Snorter about Mike. You can expect to be eating some of the most delicious meals we have ever served with Mike at the helm. And, even better you can now enjoy full meals on both Friday and Saturday nights starting at the normal times. The WOTM will be taking over Tuesday meals.

On a special note August 21st is the lunar event. I expect that our small town will be overwhelmed with visitors and locals who want to experience this once in a lifetime event. Our lodge will be open early to accommodate the crowds, but I expect a very large turnout. Our north parking lot will be closed for employees and officers only. If you are coming to town on Monday, August 21st plan on huge delays.

Again, a big thank you to our loyal volunteers who support all of our activities.

Faternally,

Jim Sehl, Administrator

FROM THE GOVERNOR

Howdy,

Another month gone by. Coming up is the Crab Feed on the 19th. Glad that the Lodge has a new cook for the kitchen with years of experience.

I would like to say a great THANKS, to everyone who came to support me, to Alex for all of her work in getting it all set up and Jim Sehl for all his help. Also to Ice, for making all the flyers. And a THANK YOU to all of you supporting me.

Faternally,

Willie Parrett, Governor

FROM THE SENIOR REGENT

Hello Friends,

Wow, I can't believe July is over! Well we finally got a cook for Bingo! Yeah!! Thank you, Mike. I hope everyone has had a chance to meet him. He will also be cooking for the WOTM on Tuesdays this Month. We are still seeking volunteers. If you would like to cook a meal for us on Tuesdays, please let me know. We are also seeking people to help Mike in the kitchen, like dishwasher or cashiers.

I want to thank the Past Regents for coming to the meeting last month. They gave me a lot of suggestions. I will try to implement all the ideas. Thank you so much.

We have a lot of changes coming this month. One is that every Tuesday, the Women Of The Moose will be doing dinners. Come and enjoy! Mike is a very good cook. Also, we have a new Bingo Manager, Kimberly Lavery. I want to say thank you to all of our bingo players for their patience with getting the people we need to get you back into the game. Thank you, Karl Young, for your help in keeping us going. I also want to give a big Thank You to Sue Gilroy, Patti Low, Darlene Gilson, Mary Scheeler and Michelle Berry. You ladies have been a huge help and I appreciate all that you do.

We Have the Texas Ho Down on the 26th: Dinner dancing and much much more! Hope to see you all!

Thanks To All,

Dora Young, Senior Regent

NEWS ALERT!!!

OUR KITCHEN will have HUGE changes coming in AUGUST

I am very excited to announce some major changes in our kitchen. First, I would like to introduce our newest employee, Chef Michael "Mike" Brooks. He comes to our lodge with 40 years of culinary experience, recently retiring from the Angell Job Corps Center. Mike has worked in the culinary field preparing fine meals for local restaurants and has taught many student the finer aspects of cooking. He brings with him a fantastic array of meals and specialties that our lodge has not enjoyed before. Come in and experience his home-made rolls and breads for starters.

In addition, Mike will be serving full meals on both Friday and Saturday nights starting at the usual times, 5:00 PM until 7:00 PM. Please come and meet Mike and if you have any requests, I urge you to ask Mike to consider your special requests. Please check out your Snorter for meal details.

I believe we will have one of the finest kitchens we have ever experienced in our lodge's history.

Fraternally,

Jim Sehl
