LODGE News

and Messages

FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

Another full month at our lodge is coming to a close with ghosts and goblins arriving at our lodge. We are experiencing fall rains and an end to a so-so salmon season. Crabbing was excellent. Now, we as a lodge must concentrate on benevolent activities, including Thanksgiving Day events and Christmas activities. Our Snorter will be updated with all the activities by the first of every month.

Our kitchen will be active under the careful eye of Chef Mike. Our meals have been excellent and priced right.

A big thanks to all the members and officers who have dedicated time and effort in manning the meal tills and serving tables.

Please remember to check out the Snorter on line at our very own web page, <http://www.waldportmooselodge.org>. Also, the Snorter will be available throughout the lodge as well.

Thanks to the efforts of our Moose Legion, we are installing "card readers" on all doors for your easy entry. If you have any questions about these readers, feel free to contact us for instructions.

Come join us for some fun, good food and great fellowship in November.

Fraternally,

Jim Sehl, Administrator

FROM THE GOVERNOR
