LODGE News

and Messages

FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

My goodness, October is here and soon ghosts will be arriving at our door step. I am recovering from an extensive surgery having my vascular arteries being replaced. I expect a full recovery within four to six weeks. I wish to acknowledge all those who has offered their support and wishes for this recovery. It means a lot to me to know our members really do care for their own.

And, to all of you who stepped up to the plate and kept our lodge running smoothly.

Now, for another great event that will be returning to our lodge. We will be hosting the Annual Community Thanksgiving Day meal from 12:00 PM until 4:00 PM on Thursday November 22.. This event will be open to the public. We will need the support of our membership helping with preparing enough food for some 500 hungry people. In addition, your financial support will ensure we have enough food to serve all of these people. John Fortune has accepted the position of Chairman for this event. Please come by the lodge and contact John, Jessica, or myself (541-272-2395) for details as to when to assist or make a donation.

I am looking forward to returning to full duty soon.

God Bless all of you,

Fraternally,

Jim Sehl, Administrator

The More You Know...

Reinstate vs. Re-enroll?

If you reinstate, by paying back dues and dues in advance, you retain your years of service into the fraternal unit you are expired in. If you re-enroll, you lose your years of service and pay the application fee and one year of dues.

You may re-enroll into any fraternal unit, while you can only reinstate into the fraternal unit you are expired in. You also need a sponsor to rejoin. It is often cheaper to re-enroll, but are your years of service important to you? If so, reinstating your membership is the way to go! Remember, you only have 24 months from the time your dues expire to have the option to reinstate. Either option is handled by submitting an application and required monies to the fraternal unit you want to join.

New changes to Reinstatement & Re-Enrollment:

The Moose Fraternity's General Laws now allow expired members additional options to renew their membership once their dues have expired.

Any person whose dues have expired, but are within six months from their dues expiration date, must:

- Pay dues, which will continue their membership from the date of expiration shown on their most recent membership card

*Action: – Remit dues to Dues Processing Center (Or through the Lodge/Chapter).

Any person whose dues have been expired between six months and one year may:

- Pay dues, which will continue their membership from the date of expiration and will maintain their years of service in the Moose

*Action: – Remit dues to Dues Processing Center (Or through the Lodge/Chapter)

- Re-Enroll in their original Lodge/Chapter or any Lodge/Chapter; however, they will lose all years of service in the Moose. The new dues expiration date, however, will not occur until one full year from the enrollment date reported by the Lodge/Chapter and Moose International

*Actions: – Submit official application, circling the application type as re-enroll
– Remit necessary application fee/dues
– Sign Former Member Acknowledgement

Any person whose dues have been expired for more than two years must:

- Re-enroll in their original Lodge/Chapter or any Lodge/Chapter, losing years of service

*Actions: – Submit official application, circling the application type as re-enroll
– Remit necessary application fee/dues
– Sign Former Member Acknowledgement

CLIP COUPON

Message

FROM THE SENIOR REGENT

Hi there co-workers!

What a fantastic September! It was an honor representing Chapter 1124 at the conference in Portland. You know, I thought I was going to learn a little something about the WOTM... Instead, WOW! I was blessed with the honor of accepting awards in behalf of the Chapter. We started off on Saturday morning being mentioned as being in the Top 5 Chapters for Community Service in Oregon for the first three months this year! My gosh, I was whooping and hollering about this accomplishment-we even beat out Portland! Then I had the huge honor of accepting in behalf of 2017-2018 Chapter 1124, the "Defender" award for Moose Charities, and the 2017-2018 Top Sponsor Award in behalf of our co-worker Kristin Kodrack! Wowee!

During the 22nd Annual Diamond Awards Ceremony, first, we were awarded a runner up for the Diamond Award For Community Service Chapter of the Year 2018 -- you ladies are just amazing, caring and giving all the time! I'm so happy we were recognized for all our efforts! Then to make the conference even more memorable, our own Mary Scheeler won the Diamond Award for the Volunteer Co-Worker of the Year! What a surprise for me to be able to receive so many awards on your behalf. I was smiling ear to ear and cheering so loud that by Saturday evening, I think everyone at the Conference knew all of us were from Waldport! Then once again, co-worker, Kristin Kodrack was announced as the Diamond Award runner up for WOTM Top Sponsor of the Year for 2018, and Patti received the award on her behalf! No easy feat to accomplish! Special thank you to Patti and Ice who attended the conference with me. It sure was memorable. We can't wait until the March conference-we are hoping that a few co-workers will come along and join the celebration!

We brought back several wonderful ideas for our Chapter. These will be presented as proposals at the WOTM Board meeting and then brought to all of you at our Chapter meeting on October 3rd.

The fun never ends at our Chapter - mid-month we started our Bunco! events, hosted by Chair Carrie and the Activity & Sports Committee. Then we ended the month with a hugely successful Car Wash Fundraising Party with the Cub Scouts Pack 53. Thank you to the Community Service Committee for organizing this fund raiser, and to all the Moose members and the Community for their support!

And of course, we need to send out a shout out to Liz Boland for cooking Tuesday Night dinners for us! We appreciate the entire crew-Sue Gildroy, Mary Scheeler and volunteers who pitch in to assist! It takes a team to put on these dinners.

October is going to be quite a busy time as autumn arrives and we celebrate WOTM events together:

- ☑ Cradle Month – It's a contest between the LOOM & WOTM as to who gets the most donations
- ☑ "Christmas in October" Sale-on October 13th 10 am-3 pm Bring your friends and neighbors!
- ☑ Bunco! Sunday, October 21st 3 pm! Tons of fun for the entire family!
- ☑ Halloween Dinner & Dance-Saturday, October 27th
- ☑ Look for special Rock Painting Gatherings-for everyone to get together and socialize
- ☑ Enjoying our Secret Sisters through the month
- ☑ And don't forget to bring in contributions for our homeless in Waldport Area

As I look over all the activities we have been doing together and also the ones we are planning for the future, it warms my heart to work with so many wonderful co-workers! Thank you to all of you for your generosity, giving, and caring.

Sincerely,

TiAnne "Ti" Rios
